

Francesco Esposito

Officer in charge of preparing financial reports and Head of Accounting and Financial Statement of Eni

Born in Napoli in 1961, he graduated in Business Administration from the University of Parma.

From June 1st, 2020 Head of Accounting and Financial Statement of Eni and, from August 1st, 2020, Officer in charge of preparing Company's financial reports. He is Secretary of the Board of Statutory Auditors.

Since May 2020, He has been Chairman of the Board of Eni International BV, the Group's main holding of foreign shareholdings.

Experience

He joined Eni in 1987 with prior experience in a consulting firm.

From 1988 to 2001, worked in the Financial and Control Department of international upstream subsidiaries: initially in Angola and China in charge of the local Joint Venture accounting, afterwards as Finance and Control Manager, reporting to the Managing Director, in Norway, Libya and Egypt.

From 2001 to 2011, was in charge of consolidating and coordinating the financial reporting and accounting for the entire Upstream sector.

From 2011 to 2013 was appointed as General Manager of Eni Adfin SpA, providing accounting and financial services to Eni in Italy.

From 2013 to 2020 was Responsible for the coordination of Eni Group accounting activities reporting to the Head of Accounting and Financial Statement, who replaced in June 2020.